share in the festival, and has refused the request of the veteran club to hold memorial services on the 10th. The school has also been forbidden to attend the unveiling of the Bismarck monument.

FOUNDER ON GRAND BANKS.
ST. JOHN'S, N.E. 30th August.
The French fishing vessel, Zeus, has foundered on the Grand Banks. Her crew of nineteen persons was picked up by the Gloucester schooner, Emma B. Withers, and safely landed here today. A terrible storm swept the Grand Banks Monday night and wrought much damage to the fishing fleet. There were today arrivals of American, Canadian and local vessels to reef. All are considerably damaged.

PHILISTINES GROW DOLDER.
COLOGNE, 30th August.
The Cologne Gazette publishes a dispatch from its correspondent in Petersburg, asserting that philistines are now more active throughout Russia than at any time since the death of Alexander III. The philistines have gradually grown bolder since the accession of the new Czar. The police are unable to cope with the number of arrests, and more are expected.

PRINCESS MAUD TO BE RETRIRED.
BERLIN, 30th August.
The Local Anzeiger reports that Princess Maud, daughter of the King of Norway, will shortly be formally betrothed to Prince Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh, the eldest son of the Princess of Wales.

A QUEEN THROWN WHILE RIDING.
The Queen of Belgium, who is staying at Spa, near Liege, was thrown from her horse while riding yesterday. The accident occurred while the Queen was leaving the hotel. Her Majesty was slightly cut about the head and hand, but she was not seriously injured. She was immediately put to bed, where she remains, but her condition is not serious enough to cause anxiety.

THE PATRICK CASE.
LONDON, 31st August.
Mrs. Clara P. Patrick, wife of the late Sir Patrick, was yesterday sentenced to six months' imprisonment for the poisoning of her husband.

CELEBRATION OF THE FALL OF SEDAN.
BERLIN, 1st September.
The inaugural ceremonies of the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Sedan, the decisive victory of the Franco-Prussian war, were celebrated yesterday.

The weather was clear and bright throughout the day. The wind blew strong from the north-west and the temperature was low. Crowds lined the streets from Berlin to the Rhine, and over the Harz mountains. The main entrance to the Emperor William Memorial Church, which was occupied by 24,000 girls attired in light-colored dresses.

The celebration of the fall of Sedan was continued today. The weather was perfect. At 5 o'clock the Emperor William reviewed the first regiment of the Guards before the Schloss, and at the conclusion of the review personally decorated the standards of the troops with the Imperial Order of the Black Eagle. The Emperor then proceeded to the Rhine, where he was to hold a review of the veterans of the Franco-Prussian war.

The Emperor was attended by a glittering suite of generals, princes, and foreign attaches. The Emperor at once rode to the point where the American veterans were to be reviewed. The American veterans were stationed and addressed a few words to them, asking in what regiment they had served. Emperor William and the King of Wurtemberg then rode down the first line of infantry, which was two miles long, and along the Rhine line, which was formed of cavalry, and the commissaries, the entire force of review numbering 30,000 men.

And tremendous cheers the Emperor offered the city at the head of his review company, passing through the Friedrichstrasse and Unter den Linden, where the children of Berlin schools, numbering about 31,000, were formed in line, awaiting the arrival of the Emperor. Over 100,000 persons witnessed the occasion.

The first Brigade of the Berlin troops, the Garde du Corps, again formed in line at the end of the review, and the Emperor, who was accompanied by the King of Wurtemberg, then rode down the line, and the Emperor, who was accompanied by the King of Wurtemberg, then rode down the line, and the Emperor, who was accompanied by the King of Wurtemberg, then rode down the line.

Today, when all Germany celebrates the world historic battle of Sedan, it is a necessity that my heart should now assure you that I ever remember with deep gratitude the imperishable work that your Grace nobly performed at that great time for my venerable grandfather, the Emperor, and the German cause.

THE MISSIONARY CONVENTION.
LONDON, 1st September.
A controversy has been raging in the newspapers respecting the right of missionaries to work in countries like China and a good deal of warmth has been kindled on the subject. The missionaries so far have held their own, and the interest aroused by the debate, coupled with the troubles in China, has had the immediate practical effect of bringing thousands of additional pounds of contributions to the various societies which have charge of the work of converting the heathen.

The London Missionary Society is likely to obtain a dispensation from the Chinese Government to the effect of allowing them to work in the various fields. The societies say it is impossible to prevent it, so numerous and so ardent are the volunteers, and consequently, they have left it to their duty to accept of the situation as it is.

SEDAN IN MOVING.
PARIS, 1st September.
The town of Sedan, which observed the anniversary of its capture by the Germans in 1870, the Chinese and the British, and the Municipal Council and many officers, soldiers, and civilians attended the services in memory of those who lost their lives in the defense of the town. All these present at the services were wearing mourning. The services of infantry and cavalry were stationed outside of the church and stood at "attention" as the people filed in.
